

Privacy Policy

Reviewed August 2019

Marsden Jazz Festival is a registered charity and a company limited by guarantee.

We may collect personal information about you when you purchase tickets, make a donation, sign up to our mailing list or provide personal information to the Marsden Jazz Festival for any other reason.

The purpose of this Privacy Policy is to provide a clear explanation of how we collect and use personal information that you provide to us.

This policy explains:

- What information Marsden Jazz Festival may collect about you;
- How we will use that information;
- Whether we disclose your details to anyone else;
- Your choices regarding the information you provide to us

What personal information do we collect?

Marsden Jazz Festival collects names, addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses from:

- Subscribers to our mailing list
- Customers who provide names, addresses and e-mail addresses for ticket purchases
- Registered volunteers
- 'Friends' of Marsden Jazz Festival (subscription scheme)
- Committee members and trustees
- Sponsors
- Audience survey respondents

How do we collect information about you?

We only collect information that you give to us. This may be by signing up to our mailing.

How information is stored and used

Data is stored electronically, in databases and spread sheets and is used for the following purposes:

- To communicate primarily about Marsden Jazz Festival
- To send a copy of our annual brochure by post to subscribers to our mailing list.
- Occasionally to ask for views on the Festival.
- Occasionally to communicate about other events which we think might interest people.

How information is protected:

The information is kept securely and is only available to authorised named staff and committee members, and will not be used for any other purpose than that stated above. The information will never be shared with any other organisation, group, or company.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

The policy was updated to reflect new legal requirements of the EU General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR'). If in future any additional changes are made we will notify you.
